BANGALORE DIVISION.

SALE OF MATERIALS CONTAINED IN OLD SANDAL KOTI BUILDING IN FORT, BANGALORE CITY.

Dated 19th June 1932.

The superstructure of the Building known as the Old Sandal Koti attached to which was the old Lac Depot and the compound wall around it, situated in Fort, Bangalore City, will be sold in public auction on the spot on 10th July 1932, commencing from 9 A.M. by the Executive Engineer, Bangalore Division, subject to the following conditions :—

1. The purchaser shall not have any right on the piece of land or site. The superstructure, i.e., that portion of the building standing above ground and the foundation of the building will be sold and the purchaser shall have the right to dismantle the building and remove at his own cost the materials including the size stone in foundation, but except the debris which will be disposed in the manner provided below.

2. The purchaser should cart all debris from the site and deposit the same in the hallows in front of the Fort Rampart and level the ground at places to be indicated by the Executive Engineer and leave the site of the Sandal Koti quite tidy and clean, the cost thereof being met by the purchaser himself, i.e., the debris has to be removed to any place within a radius of half a mile from the present building.

3. The intending bidders will be required to deposit a sum of Rs. 200 as earnest money and the deposit of the successful bidder will be taken as guarantee money for due fulfilment of the work and the deposits of other bidders returned at the close of the sale.

4. Power is reserved to the officer conducting the sale, subject to confirmation by the Chief Engineer to accept or reject any bid without assigning any reason therefor.

5. The purchase amount should be paid up in full immediately after the close of the sale, failing which, the right will be resold at the risk of the defaulting bidder. He will, however, not be eligible to participate in the event of a higher price by resale. He will be liable for the loss, if any, that may result by such resale which will be adjustable from his deposit amount. The purchaser will not be allowed to dismantle or remove the materials until he is permitted to do so in writing.

6. On receipt of permission in writing, the purchaser should proceed with the dismantling work. The work of dismantling, removing materials, levelling of the Fort moats and clearing site should be completed and the site handed over tidily within fifteen days from the date of receipt of the order by him.

7. No portion of the structure forming part of the Central Book Depot and the water connections to the Sandal Koti Building shall be dismantled or damaged in any manner while dismantling the Sandal Koti and the purchaser will have to make good any loss or damage that may be caused to other buildings in the neighbourhood.

N. G. KRISHNA IYENGAR,
Executive Engineer.
